Tell Your Children about Jesus. Here's How!

Lent is a great time for parents to teach their children about Jesus' work for us in His death and resurrection—and how the Lord calls us to live a life of service and devotion. This Lent, take some time to talk with your children about Jesus' love for us that made Him willing to go to the cross to die for us.

Bring your children to our Wednesday evening services at 5:15pm. Each week, a new Easter egg is sent home with our families. Each egg has an item inside to help you tell the story of what Jesus has done for us.

Each egg—and it's coordinating Bible story—can be used to share the story of Jesus' life, suffering, death, and resurrection with your children. They make a good family devotional activity before bed each evening.

Want more ideas on how to talk to your children about Jesus? Stop in to see either of our pastors or Mrs. Sullivan. We'd be happy to help you point your child to Jesus.

In the service of our Lord,
Pastor Stuckwisch

March 17: Saint Patrick's Day! St. Patrick might be the patron saint of Ireland - but he didn't always live in Ireland. Patrick was born in Britain in the fourth century and didn't arrive in Ireland until he was 16 years old, when he was sent to work in the country.

After he arrived, Patrick became interested in Christianity and started teaching others about religion. He is said to have converted many of the country's residents to Christians, and now St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on the day Patrick supposedly died.
